ARTICLE VI
SENIORITY

Section 6.0
Seniority, for purposes of this Agreement, is defined as the total length of an employee's most recent period of continuous full-time service with the Board. The employee's earned seniority shall not be lost because of absence due to illness, bereavement, jury duty, personal leave or authorized leave or while eligible for recall. Seniority and seniority rights will not be accrued during unpaid leaves of absence but such rights will not be lost by the employee because of such leave.

Section 6.1
All other factors being equal, seniority will be used to determine transfers, or promotions, if any, of employees. Other factors are defined as qualifications and competence to perform the work as determined by the Board.

Section 6.2
In cases where an employee transfers or is promoted from one classification to another his seniority in the new classification shall be based on his original employment date with the Board.

Section 6.3
Seniority shall be lost for the following reasons:

a. Voluntary resignation;
b. Discharge for cause;
c. Failure to return to work, from layoff, within 10 days after being recalled.

Section 6.4
a. A seniority list shall be furnished to the Union annually on or about October 1st of each year, and unless mistakes are brought to attention of the Building Principal within thirty (30) days, the list shall be considered conclusive.

b. New employees shall be considered probationary during their first ninety (90) calendar days of employment (for example, September 1 through November 29) During such probationary period the employee shall not attain seniority rights under this agreement and the probationary employee will be subject to discharge by the Board, without access to the grievance procedure. At the successful completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be retroactive to the commencement of employment, and the employee shall have access to personal and sick day benefits. Access to vacation day benefits shall commence after the one (1) year anniversary of employment. The employee shall have access to Holiday benefits during the probationary period.
a. Layoffs shall be by seniority within classification, as defined in (c) below. An employee scheduled for layoff shall bump the least senior employee within his job classification. If there is no least senior employee within his classification or there is no other employee within that classification he shall bump the least senior in the next lower classification provided he has the ability to perform the work as determined by the Board and more seniority. In turn any displaced employee shall exercise his bumping rights in this manner.

b. An employee may elect the layoff in lieu of exercising his bumping rights.

c. The classifications for purposes of layoff shall be custodians; aides; secretaries; cafeteria employees and Computer Technician.

Section 6.6
Any employee who is to be laid off shall receive two (2) weeks notice.

Section 6.7
Laid off employees with the most seniority, within classifications, shall be rehired first.

Section 6.8
The right of seniority in re-employment shall be accorded to a laid off employee prior to new employees being hired provided such laid off employee responded to a notice to report for work within ten (10) days after receipt of notice, sent by certified mail to his last known address. If such laid off employee fails to respond he shall lose all rights of seniority recall.

Section 6.9
Recall rights for laid off employees shall be for two (2) years from date of layoff. Employees shall accumulate seniority while on layoff and upon recall shall be credited for the total amount of earned continuous seniority they had prior to layoff.

ARTICLE VII
VACANCIES AND PROMOTIONS

Section 7.0
When new jobs are created within the Union or a vacancy occurs the Board shall post the job title for one (1) week and each employee who is interested will have the opportunity to apply for said opening(s), provided he or she is qualified. The senior qualified employee shall be given first consideration for the job. If the senior employee is not promoted, consideration should then be given to the next senior employee in the unit who has applied for and is qualified for the position. The Board retains the right to fill positions from outside the unit and the system if no qualified employee from within applies.
Section 7.1
There shall be a sixty (60) day probationary period for promoted employees. If the employee does not successfully complete the probationary period, the employee shall be returned to his/her former position.
