

Appendix Table of Contents

- A. 1-4: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Connecticut Borrowed $1.7 Billion for Economic Development and Its Economy Shrank
- B. 1-3: New Haven Patch: Malloy Responds To Alexion Pharmaceuticals Moving To Boston
- C. 1-2: Hartford Courant: Audit: Economic Development Agency Erred On Tax Credits, Job Creation Numbers
- D. 1-4: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Farmington Voters will Decide Thursday Whether to Spend $135 million on a New High School
- E. 1-7: The Connecticut Mirror: A Building Boom, Pensions Lock in Big Costs
- F. 1-2: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: $94 Million School Renovation Nearly Double the National Cost of Brand New Construction
- G. 1-3: The Connecticut Mirror: He's Among 1,800 on the Waiting List for a Place to Live
- H. 1-2: CT Viewpoints: Budget solution: Change the way Connecticut provides services
- I. 1-2: CNBC News: Officials: Connecticut is most expensive place to die in US
- J. 1-3: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Estate-planning attorney warns of "deluge" to New York
- K. 1-2: Cipparone & Zaccaro: New State Budget Increases the Connecticut Estate Tax Exemption
- L. 1-3: New York Times: Heirs Inherit Uncertainty with New Estate Tax
- M. 1-2: Tax Foundation: Kentucky Legislature Overrides Governor's Veto to Pass Tax Reform Package
- N. 1-11: Tax Foundation: Enhancing Tax Competitiveness in Connecticut
- O. 1-9: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Back On Track: Budget Reforms for the Long Run
- P. 1-2: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Senate Approves Pension Revocation for State Employees Convicted of Sexual Assault on the Job
- Q. 1-2: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: State Retirement Commission blocks towns from real pension reform
- R. 1-9: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: When One Unelected Bureaucrat Decides the Finances of a City
- S. 1-49: Scott Andrew Shepard: The New Jersey Pension Crisis and The California Rule and Its Potential Abolition
- T. 1-2: Homeschool CPA: Tax Breaks for Education in Some States
- U. 1-2: A2Z Homes Cool: How Many Children are Home Schooled in the United States?
- V. 1-: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Connecticut Teacher Pension Discount Rate Remains High Compared to the Rest of the Country
- W. 1-8: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: The Connecticut Teachers' Retirement System: How can it be stabilized?
- X. 1-79: Ohio Legislative Service Commission: The Effects of the Exemption of School Construction Projects from Ohio's Prevailing Wage Law
- Y. 1-30: Yankee Institute for Public Policy: Above the Law